

BOSTON BAROQUE

Martin Pearlman, Music Director

BEQUESTS

Your love of Boston Baroque's music can live on through a bequest included in your will. Here are three kinds of bequests you might consider and the specific language to use in your will.

For an outright bequest:

"I irrevocably give, devise, and bequeath to Boston Baroque, Tax ID# 04-2530131, 10 Guest Street, Suite 290, Boston MA 02135, the sum of $_____, for the benefit of Boston Baroque to be used for the following purpose: [state the purpose]. If at any time in the judgment of the trustees of Boston Baroque it is impossible or impracticable to carry out exactly the designated purpose, they shall determine an alternative purpose closest to the designated purpose.

For a residuary bequest:

Residuary Bequests are made when you intend to leave the residue portion of your assets after other terms of the will have been satisfied. For example:

"All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, I irrevocably give to Boston Baroque, Tax ID# 04-2530131, 10 Guest Street, Suite 290, Boston MA 02135, for its general purpose."

For a contingency bequest:

Contingency Bequests allow you to leave a portion of your estate to a particular charity if your named beneficiary does not survive you. Here is an example:

"I devise and bequeath the residue of the property, real and personal and wherever situated, owned by me at my death, to (name of beneficiary), if (she/he) survives me. If (name of beneficiary) does not survive me, I irrevocably devise and bequeath my residuary estate to Boston Baroque, Tax ID# 04-2530131, 10 Guest Street, Suite 290, Boston MA 02135, for its [general purposes or a specific purpose you request]."
